Reading Answers

Reading Passage 1

Questions 1-5

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 | E. The paragraph is about the fact that parameters help our minds to be creative. |
| 2 | C. The answer lies in the key phrases: ... keeping creative ability in check (in the first sentence) and Such limitations are needed so that once they are learned, they can be broken (the last sentence of the paragraph). The focus sentence is a combination of these two ideas. Note how the word yet divides the paragraph. It indicates the focus of the paragraph against the background in |

- 3 the first part. It also marks the division of Information In the whole passage.
A. The writer wrote the paragraph to show that habits limit our creativity and the habits we need to survive to play a role in this limitation.
- 4 D. The theme of the paragraph is how creativity works.
- 5 B, The paragraph deals with how parameters help the mind to be creative.

Questions 6-10

- 6 C. The answer is in the first line of the passage: It is a myth that creative people are born with their talents. Here, it is a myth = are not.
- 7 C, The answer is In paragraph A. The actual words are not in the paragraph, but the meaning is clear. A is not correct, because this is a myth; B is not correct, because the passage states that when we try to be creative, our automatic response takes over. D is not correct, because the well-trodden paths prevent creativity. Compare number 13 below.
- 8 A. The answer is in paragraph B: Unfortunately, mankind's very struggle for survival has become a tyranny. The answer paraphrases this statement. A is not correct, because the passage says the struggle has become, i.e. is tyranny, not that it is becoming so; B is not correct, because cholesterol is not mentioned in relationship to the brain, but the mind, C is incorrect, because it is the mind which is circumscribed.
- 9 A. The answer is in paragraph C: a continuous process of restrictions, which is increasing exponentially with the advancement of technology. The statement Is a paraphrase of this section. Note B and C are the same; it is, therefore, not possible to have either of these two alternatives as your answer. Watch out for this feature In multiple-choice questions.

D. The answer is in paragraph C: Is it surprising then that creative ability appears to be so rare. This is a question and has the same meaning as the statement given, i.e. It is not surprising. Note C is not possible, because the passage doesn't indicate whether the rarity is increasing or decreasing.
